

KNOTT ARCHITECTS - 32 SOTHEBY ROAD, ISLINGTON, LONDON

An 1890 decorative brickwork terraced house within an Islington conservation area has had a substantial remodelling to the ground floor areas.

Three rooms have become one in an open plan cascade of levels from street level to the garden – providing an expanse of light filled family living space.

Certain historic fabric is retained, and the contemporary insertions express themselves as 21st century.
